TRADE REPORT.

Notable Activity Shown in Several Lines of Business.

Several Lines of Business.

Bradstreat's to-morrow will say, for Richmond and vicinity:

There is notable activity in the lumber and timber markets. Those engaged in this line liere have been making steady gains and prices continue to show an upward in the flar ward and building material business are busy. Their sales show an increase, and they are entering into new fleids with satisfactory results. The general activity in these two kindred lines is largely due to the extensive amount of building that is being done, and in spite of the advance in prices there seems to be no abatement in domand for such supplies.

Wholesale dry goods dealers continue spring shipments, and ordering generally has been liberal considering the condition of the market. Offerings on the local loose leaf tobacco markets are not large, the majority of last year's crop having been sold. Prices, however, continue firm with no abatement in demand. In the produce market the demand equals the supply, and prices continue firm for practically all lines of produce. Collections generally in Virginia are good. In North Carolina collections are not good and requests for extension are very numerous, in the latter case this slowness in payments and injured tobacco crops.

REPORT NOT TRUE, RAILROAD NEWS PRESIDENT SAYS FROM ALL POIN

Rumored Sale of Old Dominion Freight Agents of Big Lines Here Steamship Company Denied by Mr. Guillaudeu.

Richmond Yesterday-Other Business Matters.

Enformation received here yesterday from Providence, R. I., conveyed the stattling announcment that the Old Dominion Steamship Company, a sort of Virginia landmark, was about to be absorbed by the New Haven Railway

Virginia landmark, was about to be absorbed by the New Haven Railway and that the Merchants' and Miners' Line was soon going in the same direction.

It happened that Mr. W. L. Guillaudeu, the president of the Old Dominion Line, was in Richmond yesteriay on matters connected with the Jamestown Exposition business of his company. Mr. Guillaudeu carefully read the telegram from Providence, which was shown to him by a Times-Dispatch reporter, and then declared emphatically: "There is not a word of truth in that report. I know whereof I speak when I say that the Old Dominion will continue to do business at the old stand. It will continue to improve its facilities for the service of its patrons along all its lines and has in contemplation special improvements for the convenience and comfort of the people on the side and smaller lines. No, the Old Dominion is not going to sell out to the Providence syndicate or any other syndicate." Mr. Guillauded is in Tirgin'a now, looking after the special accommodations that are necessary to meet the demands of the Jamestown Exposition overflow, and he is seeing to it that no stone shall be left unturned to insure the comfort of those who visit Jamestown and the surrounding waters by his lines. He will be in Richmond all of to-day and will be in conference this merning with officials of the Chamber of Commerce.
